

Information for All Applicants

The University of California, Riverside uses the information requested on this application to process your readmission. Response to most of the questions is mandatory. If you do not supply all of the mandatory information, the processing of your readmission application and your enrollment may be delayed. Information that you provide in Section II, Personal Information, is used to verify your identity with that of your UCR academic record, to ensure and update the accuracy of your address, and to accurately maintain records of your visa status if you are an international student or have become a U.S. citizen.

The Office of the Registrar and your college office maintain the information you provide on this application. The information is provided to the state and federal governments where required by law. According to the law, you have the right to access this information.¹ Further information concerning disclosure of student records is published in the University of California, Riverside General Catalog and on the Office of the Registrar's Website (registrar.ucr.edu). This application for readmission is nontransferable to a future quarter.

Readmission

Applications must be filed by the First Day of Summer Instruction, if you are readmitting for the fall quarter; by the First Day of Fall Instruction, if you are readmitting for the winter quarter; and by the First Day of Winter Instruction, if you are readmitting for the spring quarter.

A readmission application must be filed if,

- a) If you have been away from UCR for one or more quarters.
- b) If you were lapsed from student status from the current quarter (lost classes after failing to pay fees) and are seeking to continue.

Students who do not enroll or graduate in the quarter to which they are readmitted must file a new readmission application and pay the application fee to return in a future quarter. New students who were admitted to UCR and enrolled in, but did not complete their first quarter are eligible for readmission for a period of one year. Students who were academically disqualified or who were on academic probation at the time of their last UCR attendance may be required to meet with the appropriate dean. Students who were dismissed for disciplinary reasons must obtain approval of the Dean of Students. If you were dismissed for disciplinary reasons, consult with the Student Conduct & Academic Integrity Programs (SCAIP) Director before filing for readmission. Readmission of all applicants is subject to the approval of the appropriate Associate Dean of Student Academic Affairs.
